

Chapter 23 Brendan the Bully and the Breaking News

The narrator describes her day as a “Roller-Coaster Day”. This means it had some really good things and some really sad/bad things which made her emotions go up and down like a roller coaster.

Draw a roller coaster about Ahmet’s time since he came to England and write the good things that have happened to him at the high parts and the bad/sad things that have happened to him at the low parts.

